Tell us a bit about why you'd like to join the Bread & Butter Collective:

TELL US ABOUT YOU AND YOUR VALUES

Yes I am

Working on this but require help to achieve this

Are you an independent locally owned food and beverage business?

Are you looking to share openly?

Are you wanting to lessen the environmental impact of your business?

Are you paying your staff equitable wages?

Are you an employer offering benefits to your staff?

Are you providing a safe and inclusive work environment?

Are you committed to HR best practices?

MEMBERSHIP:

Members receive email updates, have access to the B&B Dropbox and Slack, Blue Sky meetings and the opportunity to participate in B&B Collective programs. The annual membership fee is $100.

Upon acceptance of your application:

- Please E-TRANSFER the membership fee to jeff@bigwheelburger.com. Please make the password (all lowercase): butter.
- Email this application and your company logo for posting to the B&B member page to info@breadandbuttercollective.com

Members of Bread & Butter Collective agree to adopt the following principles, goals, and tenets of responsible small-business ownership and management (the “Bread & Butter Principles”), and to work toward promoting the Bread & Butter Principles in our businesses and in our community:

COLLABORATION – Members are committed to sharing knowledge, experience, wisdom, best practices, and successes for the betterment of all members.

TRIPLE BOTTOM LINE – Members are committed to maintaining sustainable levels of profit, reducing the environmental impact of their businesses, and contributing to the community.

EXCELLENCE – Members are committed to running industry-leading businesses, providing high-quality products, supporting local businesses, and generating memorable customer experiences.

LEARNING – Bread & Butter Collective is committed to providing education and learning resources for members, and members are committed to contributing to these resources.

By signing this Membership Form, Members acknowledge that failure to promote and support the Bread & Butter Principles may result in suspension or termination of membership in the Bread & Butter Collective, at the sole discretion of the directors of the Bread & Butter Collective Society. Members also acknowledge that delay or failure on the part of the directors of the Bread & Butter Collective Society to suspend a member who has violated the Bread & Butter Principles does not waive, void, abnegate, or otherwise diminish the importance of the Bread & Butter Principles to the Bread & Butter Collective, or the requirement that Members uphold the same.”
